EXPECTATIONS

Moulton Theatre is run by volunteers and we ask cast to aid in the set painting, clean up and marketing of this production. We are all one team and need to work together to put this performance on and keep our theatre up and running.

COSTS

Should you successful be cast in the production, you are required to sign up to become a member which provides insurance whilst you are on stage and provides your script. Current cost is £25 and our membership secretary will be in touch regarding this.

Whilst costumes are an important part this production and some will require being hired, actors are encouraged to source their own, where possible. If there is a cost, these must be minimal and can be redeemed by the theatre. Please consult the director before any purchases are made.

The Play, Set and Players

The Play and Set

The play is about the off-screen love affair between Carry On Film stalwarts, Barbara Windsor and Sid James.

The comedy portrays the filming of the “Carry On” series as a less than glamorous affair, characterised by leaking caravans, inadequate pay and an argumentative co-star.

The play’s action takes place on rain-soaked locations with Barbara taking refuge in Sid’s trailer while he and co-star Kenneth Williams carry on their series Hancock’s Half Hour.
